

SERMON NOTES ♦ APRIL 12, 2009
Your Life Changes Now!

SERMON TEXT
Mark 16:1-8 (NRSV)

¹When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. ²And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. ³They had been saying to one another, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?' ⁴When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. ⁵As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. ⁶But he said to them, 'Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. ⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.' ⁸So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

THE UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Mighty God, by your power is Christ raised from the dead to rule this world with love. We confess we have not believed in him, but instead we fall into doubt and fear. Gladness has no home in our hearts, and gratitude is slight. Forgive our dread of dying, our hopelessness, and set us free for joy in the victory of Jesus Christ, who was dead but lives, and will put down every power to hurt or destroy, when your promised Kingdom comes...

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. God sent his Son, they called him Jesus; he came to love, heal, and forgive; he lived and died to buy my pardon, an empty grave is there to prove my Savior lives.

Because he lives I can face tomorrow; because he lives all fear is gone; because I know he holds the future, and life is worth the living just because he lives.

The First Presbyterian Church-wide membership survey is underway. If you have not yet filled out a survey online, please visit the Church web site and click on the link, check your email and click on the link, or paste the hyperlink into your web browser.
http://www.surveymonkey.com/s.aspx?sm=cF_2byxQFrpIXhk5JTx5aRw_3d_3d

If you would rather fill out the survey on paper, copies are available in the back of the church, in the parlor and the church office. Completed paper surveys can be dropped in a locked survey box in the parlor. To make sure the information we gather is accurate, each member must fill out ONLY ONE survey. Don't wait. The survey ends at 11:00 p.m. on Sunday, April 19. We look forward to hearing from you.

Upcoming Studies: Because the Crucifixion and Resurrection are so important to our Christian faith, Dr. Brown will teach two courses following Easter that will help put them into their right perspective. The courses are for two distinctly different audiences and sets of needs. "EXPLAINING CHRISTIANITY" will begin Sunday, April 26 and is for self-acknowledged non-Christians or anyone wondering about Christianity. "THE CORE OF THE GOSPEL" begins Thursday, April 16 and is for Christians who want to be grounded in the faith. See the April Newsletter for more information or call the office (704-664-5275) to sign-up for either course.

We welcome to our services this morning, our own high school brass and percussion ensemble. They are: Marshall Horsman and Graham Sledge, french horn; John Patrick Justice and Logan Bates, trombone; Cody Brown, tuba and Matt Abele and Jordan Sledge, percussion
