

SERMON NOTES ♦ MAY 10, 2009
A Tale of Two Persons

SERMON TEXT
Romans 5:12-21 (NLT)

¹²When Adam sinned, sin entered the world. Adam's sin brought death, so death spread to everyone, for everyone sinned. ¹³Yes, people sinned even before the law was given. But it was not counted as sin because there was not yet any law to break. ¹⁴Still, everyone died—from the time of Adam to the time of Moses—even those who did not disobey an explicit commandment of God, as Adam did. Now Adam is a symbol, a representation of Christ, who was yet to come. ¹⁵But there is a great difference between Adam's sin and God's gracious gift. For the sin of this one man, Adam, brought death to many. But even greater is God's wonderful grace and his gift of forgiveness to many through this other man, Jesus Christ. ¹⁶And the result of God's gracious gift is very different from the result of that one man's sin. For Adam's sin led to condemnation, but God's free gift leads to our being made right with God, even though we are guilty of many sins. ¹⁷For the sin of this one man, Adam, caused death to rule over many. But even greater is God's wonderful grace and his gift of righteousness, for all who receive it will live in triumph over sin and death through this one man, Jesus Christ.

¹⁸Yes, Adam's one sin brings condemnation for everyone, but Christ's one act of righteousness brings a right relationship with God and new life for everyone. ¹⁹Because one person disobeyed God, many became sinners. But because one other person obeyed God, many will be made righteous.

²⁰God's law was given so that all people could see how sinful they were. But as people sinned more and more, God's wonderful grace became more abundant. ²¹So just as sin ruled over all people and brought them to death, now God's wonderful grace rules instead, giving us right standing with God and resulting in eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart, soul, and mind. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. In your mercy, forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Congregational Meeting Scheduled: A slate of nominees for the Church Officer Nominating Committee, the group charged by our Book of Order with presenting a slate of nominees for the Session and Diaconate, will be placed into nomination during a congregational meeting to be held next Sunday, May 17, 11:00 a.m., in the Sanctuary before the start of the worship service. Electing a nominating committee is a new procedure for our church. Previously, members of the Church Officer Nominating Committee were selected according to a prescribed formula to include members from various programs and ministries of the congregation. However, the Session became aware last fall that this well-intentioned process was not in accord with the PCUSA Book of Order. Instead, the committee membership, with the exception of the elder and deacon representatives, must be elected by the congregation with the opportunity given to make nominations from the floor. As the Session discussed what to do, it referred the matter to its Executive Committee for ideas. The Executive Committee, comprised of the chairs of Session committees, the clerk of Session, the moderator of the Diaconate, and the pastors, returned with a plan that the Session accepted. The Session and Diaconate representatives on the nominating committee chosen by the Session are:

- Session, Class of 2009: Phil Heilman (chair) and Karen Brawley.
- Diaconate, Class of 2009: Julie Morrow and Eric Estes.

Per the Book of Order, Phil, Karen, Julie, and Eric are already on the committee and will not be up for election. The 10 nominees for the remainder of the committee that will be placed into nomination are:

AGE	MALE	FEMALE
20-39	Brian Little	Dawn Chappell
40-49	Mark Deaton	Carol Crews
50-59	Bill Lackey	Angie Toma
60-69	Emie Crymes	Elaine Drye
70 +	Bill Morrow	Pat Cuberson

You may place an active church member into nomination with that person’s prior consent. The age and gender will determine placement on the ballot. Runoff elections will be held until the membership of the committee is complete.

Next Sunday’s Worship—May 17, 9:00 & 11:00 a.m. services: Clay Brown preaching on Romans 6:1-14, “Dead or Alive.”
