

SERMON NOTES ♦ OCTOBER 25, 2009
“The Miracle of the Gospel”

SERMON TEXT

Ephesians 2:1-10 (New Revised Standard Version)

You were dead through the trespasses and sins² in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient.³ All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else.

⁴But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us⁵ even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—⁶and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,⁷ so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.⁸ For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God—⁹not the result of works, so that no one may boast. ¹⁰For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

CONFESSION

CALL TO CONFESSION

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Eternal God, in every age you raise up men and women to live and to die in faith. We confess we are often indifferent to your will. You call us to proclaim your name, but we are silent. You call us to do what is just, but we remain idle. You call us to live faithfully, but we are afraid. In your mercy, forgive us. Give us courage to follow in your way, that joined with those from ages past, who have served you with faith, hope, and love, we may inherit the kingdom you promised in Jesus Christ.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

POSTLUDE: “For All the Saints” arr. Hamlin

If you are our guest today, welcome! We’re so glad you’re here. For more information on FPC, please indicate your interest on the Friendship Pad and/or take home a “Welcome Home” folder from the Parlor. You can become a FPC member TODAY by your profession of faith, transfer of membership, or reaffirmation of faith. Please speak with the pastor in the chancel area following the service.

Large print bulletins are available from the ushers. Assisted listening devices are available from the sound console at the back of the sanctuary.

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in honor of Eleanor Templeton and Lynelle Owen by Circle One.

Mission Opportunity in Africa: Have you ever considered participating in an overseas mission? Here’s a chance to find out more and explore the possibility. A special informational meeting for persons interested in the mission opportunities in the African village of Mwandu, Zambia will be held on Wednesday, October 28, in Room 300 at 7:30 p.m. A joint trip with Lake Norman Fellowship is currently being planned for August 3-20, 2010. Contact Fred Coates for additional details and plan now to attend the meeting.

Saints Alive Beach Trip: Twenty-eight participants are registered for the annual Saints Alive beach trip to Myrtle Beach, SC. The group plans to leave this Tuesday, October 27, and return Friday, October 30. Participants traveling in the church van should be at the church by 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday.

All Saints’ Eve Fall Festival: Everyone is invited to attend the All Saints’ Eve Fall Festival this Saturday, October 31, from 5:00-7:00, in the fellowship hall. Activities include carnival games, a bounce castle, costume parade, hot dog supper, and cake walk. All activities are free of charge; donations are appreciated to offset costs.

All Saints’ Eve Volunteers: We are still needing volunteers to help staff games and help with clean up for the All Saints’ Eve Fall Festival. Please contact Susan Kendall (704-660-0458) or Ellen Auten (704-664-5275) if you are available to help

Mark Your Calendar: The Missions Committee is sponsoring a Pancake Supper/Breakfast on Friday & Saturday, November 6 and 7. Dinner begins at 5:00 p.m. on Friday and breakfast starts at 7:00 a.m. on Saturday. The proceeds will benefit the Spring 2010 Mission Trip to Slidell, LA. Tickets may be purchased from members of the Missions Committee.

Pledge Cards and Time and Talent Forms: If you haven’t yet turned in your 2010 Pledge Card or your 2010 Time and Talent Form, you’re encouraged to do as soon as you are able. Your stewardship of time, talent, and treasure is very important to your spiritual growth and our service for Christ as a congregation. Groups use the information from Pledge Cards and Time and Talent forms to plan 2010’s ministry. You may find cards and forms in the pews, in the Parlor, and in other locations. You may turn in the cards and forms in the offering plate or in the church office. Thank you for your support and generosity of spirit!

Reformation Sunday and Communion: Today we celebrate Reformation Sunday, in which we remember and give thanks for those who led in the reformation of the church to a renewed emphasis on the gospel of grace through faith. We will observe communion as part of our celebration: all baptized Christians and children who have been instructed in the meaning of the sacrament are encouraged to participate, regardless of denomination or membership. Please commune as you are served the elements.
